RADICALISM RUNNING INTO ANARCHY.

The Imperialist boastingly proclaims "it still lives." It tells us that its circulation is rapidly on the increase, and that many who stood aghast at its sentiments, when they were first promulgated, are now among their most hearty endorsers. This is not at all unlikely. Bitter experience has admonished us how soon men's minds become familiarized with ideas which at the outset they abhorred, and how swift and easy becomes the transition from virtue to vice, so to speak, when the passions get the better of the reasoning faculties. Before the recent "war for the Union," we all know how men who are now rampant Consolidationists would have rolled up their eyes in holy horror at the bare thought of military dictatorship, or the subordination of the popular will by force in States deemed to be sovereign. Yet how calmly, nay, how approvingly, they contemplate it now—now, that it coincides with their notions of partizan thrift and political expediency. It would not do, therefore, to assume, as some do, that the American people can never be persuaded to follow the example of the Israelites of old, and "ask for a king." We are no better than the Greeks and Romans, who began their career as Republics, and ended it with Imperialism. We know it is a common thing to boast of our superior civilization, of our wider-diffused intelligence, and of the wisdom we have learned from the blunders of peoples and nations that have gone before us—but it is only a boast. Looking back at the events of the past nine or ten years, we are inclined to question the "superior civilization," the wider-diffused intelligence, and the wisdom that comes from experience. Certain grim facts all the while stare us in the face, and stagger us. Greece had her Thirty Tyrants, under whose sway free government was impossible. We have, in our Radical Directory at Washington—by courtesy called a Congress—five times thirty tyrants, whose outrages upon liberty are quite as atrocious; and if Rome, in her decline and fall had Heliogabolus, have we not had Lincoln and Grant? History thus keeps on repeating itself. We are no better than anybody else. We are swayed by pretty much the same passions and the same ambitions that governed our poor human nature thousands of years since.

"There was a Brutus once that would have brook'd
The eternal devil to keep his state in Rome,
As easily as a king."

But in due time, nevertheless, the "king" came along, and was not only "brooked" but willingly obeyed. We are feeling the way to a like enslavement—different in kind, it may be, but the same in substance. The so called Republican party is in every instinct imperial. From the first hour of its accession to power, it has aimed at nothing so much as the exercise of arbitrary authority. The demagogues whom it has invested with the power of the purse and the sword, have trampled upon the liberties of the people with a recklessness which has more than once, brought the heads of European monarchs to the block. In private and social life its tendencies and tastes are are all in the same direction. Its fondness for wealth, wrung from honest industry, its ostentatious display of that wealth, its pampered and luxurious tastes, have forced the plain, republican habits of former and better days quite out of fashion. Its Senators no longer travel as private citizens,—They go abroad like petty princes, attended by servants in livery, and aping all the airs of Old World aristocracies—Blind, indeed, must that man be who cannot see to what a calamitous end these ominous beginnings must assuredly lead. With this bastard Republican party in power, in point of fact, we have Imperialism already—the hideous thing in substance, with only the name wanting. The old forms of government, to a certain extent, remain, but the spirit and the essence are gone. Not too far gone, however, for recovery, if the people will but open their eyes to the perils which confront them, and resolve to bring back the government to its ancient moorings. This can only be done by restoring the Constitution, ejecting the imperialists from power, and replacing the administration of the Government in the hands of the good old Democratic party, under which public liberty was always safe, and under which the country was peaceful and prosperous at home, with its flag honored and respected by every nation and every government on the face of the earth.

THE TEN DOLLAR COUNTERFEIT GREEN BACKS.—The Treasurer of the United States lately received a letter from the Cashier of a bank in Indianapolis, enclosing a good ten dollar note of the issue under act of March 3, 1863, put out in lieu of the convertible notes, asking that the note be returned with a statement of the difference between it and the new counterfeit. It was stated that the same issues of greenbacks vary in small particulars, and an answer to this letter would not settle the question. When a plate gets worn a new one is used, and no two are exactly alike. As but one note has actually been pronounced counterfeit, though three others evidently are, applications for specimens of the counterfeit are useless. A large number of such applications have already been received. The Treasurer is convinced that this ten dollar note is the most dangerous counterfeit yet discovered.

SUPPOSED LOSS OF FOUR HUNDRED LIVES. Notice has been posted at Lloyd's in reference to the missing steamers "United Kingdom" and "Chedube," calling upon the underwriters to settle their liabilities of insurance, no doubt being now entertained that they both must have foundered with all on board. The "United Kingdom" was one of the line of packets trading between New York and Glasgow. She left the former port on April 19th, and was never seen afterwards. The "Chedube" belonged to the British Bombay Steam Navigation Co. She left Bombay for Rangoon on the 14th of May, and is supposed to have encountered a heavy cyclone two days afterwards, and must have been engulphed in it, for nothing was heard or seen of her. The notice also contained two other missing ships. The number of people lost in the four ships is nearly 400.

The seat in the United States Senate which the just elected Legislature of Tennessee is to fill, is that of Mr. Fowler, whose term does not expire for two years, that is the 3rd of March, 1871.

From the Treasure City (Nev.) News, July, 21.

THE WHITE PINE CAVE.

DISCOVERY OF A WONDERFUL CAVE IN TREASURE HILL.

The largest, or rather the longest, deepest, and most brilliant, cavern yet struck in Treasure hill was opened by the south ore breast, forty-foot level, southeast of the Belmont shaft of the Consolidated Chloride Flat company, day before yesterday. The cave is about four feet wide, three feet high, dips to the south at an angle of 45 degrees, and may be descended to a depth of 100 feet. At this point the cavern is choked or partially obstructed by loose rocks and detached stalactites and masses of oriental alabaster. To what depth it descends below this point is unknown, but it will be opened within a few days and explored thoroughly. The face of the ore breast around the entrance to this cave is similar in appearance to other portions of the mine in the same vicinity—ore extending down the walls for several feet. Next comes 10 or 12 feet, top, bottom and sides, of compact and capillary alabaster, partially altered to quartz; then a vein crossing to the southwest at an angle of 50 degrees, of sternbergite or flexible silver ore, implanted in crystals, forming fan like aggregations, common to silver ores of this character.—This takes us 20 feet down from the ore and 60 feet from the surface. Here the compact opaque alabaster gives way on all sides to coralliform stalactites, and the sulphate to carbonate of lime; passing rapidly from the milk white selenite to the golden hued masses of capillary dendrite, which glisten by candle light like the pendules of a chandelier. Here, too, small and great arches swoop over masses of the nearly even roof, and reappear in the main cavern far below—the roof proper maintaining its height from the floor with great regularity. Some of these arched cavities would permit the passage of a man 10 or 12 feet to the top of the arch and down to the main opening again, 30 feet from the starting point, while others are so short one could hardly hold a candle at arm's length and see the light of it through the arch. Much of the compact alabaster, where broken, is dendritic and beautiful as a moss agate. The cavern is nearly uniform in size down to the depth of 100 feet, but in places where the floor is covered with debris one is compelled to crawl through like a snake. The air is pure, and candles burn freely to the greatest depth explored. Stopping for a moment near the bottom to gaze on the wondrous beauty around us, a ticking like that of a death-watch attracted our attention, and we inquired of Sam Ferguson the cause. He said it was the striking of drills, 30 or 40 of which were busy within 150 feet of us, and informed us that they can be heard 200 feet through solid limestone. Ladies cannot go down this wondrous subterranean passage, we are sorry to say, for men have to go feet foremost on hands and knees, and in some places crawfish fashion.

WITCHCRAFT—A POISON DOCTOR AND HIS PATIENT.

The days of witchcraft are beginning to be revived among some negroes in this section. Sam Barram—a son of "old Dave," so well remembered by former students at Chapel Hill—is a boy that was raised in the service of Lemuel Lynch, Esq., of this town, and since the war has been living out at Mr. L's. plantation. Mr. L. places the utmost confidence in Sam and has ever found him an honest, sensible and reliable servant. Last September Sam was taken sick. Had pains all over him—"some hard something a working all about him"—and a shortness of breath together with a swelling of his person. This lasted through the winter and so reduced and wasted his system that early in the spring he was placed under the treatment of an excellent physician in that neighborhood. The doctor attended him a long while and finally gave him up as a gone case. Mr. Lynch expected him to die. And other persons of this place who went out to see him expected the same thing. He was all the time gasping for breath and so weak he couldn't walk from his house to the barn.

THE POISON DOCTOR.

It happened that about three weeks ago a negro suggested to Sam maybe he was "pizened." And advised him to send and consult an old negro doctor named Weaver who lives this side of Morris' Depot on the road to Raleigh. Sam sent to him on Sunday. The messenger described his case and the old doctor sent word to him "that he had been pizened by a negro man and woman that grudged him his place and wanted to get it; but that if he would take the medicine he sent him it would cure him in a week."

SAM'S ACCOUNT OF THE CURE.

The messenger got to Sam with the medicine on Monday night and on the following Friday he walked to this place—three miles—and appeared before Mr. Lynch. Why Sam—said he—is this you? Yes sir, said Sam, I am pretty near well. As soon as that box of medicine was opened before me I began to feel better. The "hard something" that was paining me in my throat got down and give way and I felt easier. And to-day I felt strong enough to walk to town as I wanted to get two dollars from you to go down and see doctor Weaver.

Mr. L. let him have the money and he made the visit. The old doctor told him who his enemies were; how to tell when they were about; and told him—if he was willing—he would punish them for him. But Sam is laying low and watching.—Though his wife has since found some old roots tied up in a rag and hid away in the spring. Sam spent election day with the old doctor and got some more useful information. He says he keeps his eye skinned. Those who knew this boy's failing health consider his sudden restoration remarkable—to say the least of it.—Hillsboro Recorder.

A BEAUTIFUL SENTIMENT.—Sorrow sobers us and makes the mind genial. And in sorrow we love and trust our friends more tenderly, and the dead become dearer to us. And just as the stars shine out in the nights so there are blessed faces that looks at us in our grief, though before their features were fading from our recollection. Suffering! Let no man dread it too much, because it is better for him, and it will help to make him sure of being immortal. It is not in the bright days, but only in the solemn night, that other words are to be seen shining in the long, long distances. And it is sorrow—the night of the soul—that we see the farthest; and know ourselves natives of infinity and sons and daughters of the Most High!

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

JANUARY 1ST., 1869.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

GRANT'S POLICY.

The author of the letters of Junius; the source of the Nile; the origin of the sybiline prophecies, and the name of the man who offered personal violence to William Patterson, Esq., are all subjects that have puzzled the brains of quid nunes and antiquaries, as well as staggered the logic of historians and philosophers, for lo! these many years; and mankind have been bored by many learned disquisitions on each of these questions, without drawing a single peg that secured the curtain of mystery and uncertainty that hid their true solution from an anxious world. But the interest on these momentous topics has measurably died away, and mankind were beginning to settle down into dull and melancholy ennui, when it was announced to the world that GRANT HAS A POLICY. Don't mistake the purport and significance of the words. The idea is not intended to be conveyed that he has insured his life in Ætna or Brooklyn, or the Connecticut Mutual, or any of the other "old and established," nor even taken out a policy in the new "National" of which Jay Cooke is the main feature, (always excepting the liberal rules on which it insures.) This is not what is meant—nothing of the sort—the important idea and literal meaning of the words we have put in small caps, is, that President Grant has a policy—a firm and well-defined purpose—an ulterior and ultimate end and aim in regard to Virginia, Mississippi, Texas, as well as to Cuba, Ireland, Spain and, perhaps, "the rest of mankind."

The question is: What is that policy? This question puzzles friends and opponents alike. Virginia don't understand it as Tennessee understands it; the Herald thinks it is one thing, and the Tribune thinks it another; Col. Ryan and the Cuban Junta thought it meant sympathy with Cuba three months ago; four weeks ago they had occasion to alter their opinion, and while the world stood with its mouth open, wondering which opinion in regard to his policy was the true one, lo, behold! two corners of the vail are slightly lifted at once, the one disclosing a strong hint of negotiation with Spain for the purchase of Cuba, the other, a pretty strong disposition to recognize the Cubans as belligerents.

Virginia pitched into the late canvass under the impression that she had certainly gotten a clue to the President's policy, and that it was "universal suffrage and general amnesty;" Tennessee goes in on the same lay, and Boutwell, speaking for the President and the administration, indicates that that sort of thing will not do—the President's policy don't admit of any such liberal construction. Mississippi thought she was all right, and placed herself "in the line of safe precedents," when, flash! comes the telegram, "telegraphed by request," and "made public by the permission of the President," that he don't like the way they are doing things up in that State; the "liberal Republican" soup, like old Ned's broth, "tastes 'most too strong of the squirrel." He seems to think the hash hasn't got enough Republicanism in it, even including Dent, to make it palatable. He fears the Democrats will "sop twice in the deep sop "while the Rads will get only "one dip in the shallow." So, the Mississippians, like the Tennesseans, and like Col. Ryan and the Cubans, and like the English and the Spaniards, have found that they were slightly at fault in regard to what the President's policy is.

We confess we don't know what his policy is. Being very anxious to assist in carrying it out in North Carolina, provided it had a living in it, we have been anxiously watching our neighbor, the "Standard," to see if we could catch a scintillation of light on the subject, but have been totally disappointed or misled at every corner. First, we guessed, from indications in the "Standard, that the President's policy embraced the success of Wells and the "extreme Radical faction" in Virginia, for that paper had several little encouraging paragraphs for the Wellsites, and not a word for Walker, and it was well known that the sympathies of Holden, Abbott, Dewesse, and other "heads and fronts," of the "Standard" clique in this State, favored Wells, and even spoke of Walker's election as a Republican defeat; at least, Holden, Dewesse and Lafin did, on the train, coming from the Railroad meeting at Salisbury.

Well, we did not like this indication much, and felt a hesitancy in endorsing the "policy;" but when we heard the hoarse croak of the Standard, shouting over Walker's election, and claiming it as an administration triumph, we concluded to take the subject further under advisement; perhaps we could sustain the policy, after all.

We were strengthened in this course when we saw Tennessee following in the footsteps of Virginia, and the Standard "declaring for Senter"—the Conservative Republican candidate—"before the election." We knew the Standard to be a staunch friend of the administration; at least it said so; and we concluded we had got "the policy" of the President then, and prepared to "go it with a rush" for President Grant, universal suffrage and general amnesty." But, disappointment seems to be the lot of poor sanguine mortals in these low grounds of sorrow. No sooner had we donned the armor to fight for the firm establishment of "the policy" than here comes the letters of Cabinet officers endorsing Stokes, and declaring that the Radicals were the only true Republicans of Tennessee, and that the weight of the administration would be wielded for the success of that side. We should have felt much worse at this than we did, if it had not been for the hearty laugh we were bound to indulge in—(pardon the levity)—at seeing the Standard man suddenly revealed with his unmentionables in an unbuttoned condition when this new flush of light shone upon him.

Now, we are more in the dark than ever; we mean in regard to "the policy," and we most respectfully ask the Standard to help us out. We are very anxious to become orthodox in our political creed, therefore we most respectfully propound to the Editor of the Standard the following interrogatories:

1. Will it do to stick to Senter any longer?

2. Will it be safe to "declare for" Dent "before the election" in Mississippi?

3. Is it according to "the policy" to advocate the removal of disabilities as a concomitant of universal suffrage?

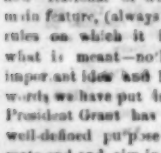
We hope the Standard will enlighten us speedily on these subjects, lest some new developement put the subject in some other phase.

LOOK ON THIS SIDE.

The form of the Governor's proclamations on public affairs is familiar to us all; but here is the form of another sort of proclamation, by "Our Beloved," not so familiar, and we give it as a specimen of how things are done by His Excellency, outside of the routine of his public official duties. It is a verbatim copy of the original, leaving out only the name of the appointee:

To All Whom it may Concern:

Know, ye by this commission, that by virtue of the power vested in us by the Grand National Council of U. L. of A., we hereby constitute and appoint —— ——, of Alamance, a deputy member of the Grand State Council, and confer upon him full authority to initiate proper persons into the secrets of the U. L. A. of A., and install officers of Councils, within and for the State of North Carolina; to supervise and instruct the same, and to such other and further acts as may be necessary for the advancement and good of the League, and in accordance with its laws and regulations, hereby requiring the said —— —— to promptly report to this Grand Council all of his doings by virtue of this dispensation.



Given under our hand and the seal of the Grand State Council, at the City of Raleigh, N. C., this 5th day of July, 1867.

W. W. HOLDEN,
Grand President.

W. R. RICHARDSON, Gr. Rec. Sec'y.

From the Charlotte Times of yesterday.

DEATH OF JUDGE OSBORNE.

We are pained to announce this morning the death of our distinguished citizen, the Hon. James W. Osborne. He died at his home in this city on yesterday, at the hour of 11, A. M. Although the death of Judge Osborne, in view of his precarious health for some weeks past, was not entirely unexpected, his demise on yesterday threw over our whole community a sadness and gloom never before witnessed here at the loss of any one individual. He was a man without guile, and numbered his friends among all classes and conditions of people.

Judge Osborne, from his earliest entrance upon the theatre of active life, has engaged a large share of public attention. His genial manners, his rare talents, his persuasive eloquence, his purity of purpose and his zeal in every good work, all combined to gain him popular applause, and to attach to him the wisest and best of the land. He has filled many high positions—all with eminent ability; and against his fidelity the breath of suspicion has never uttered even a whisper.

He goes to the grave in the 59th year of his age; in the full vigor of his intellect—crowned with honors and good deeds, and blessed with the hopes and promises of the life that is to come.

His funeral was announced to take place from the Presbyterian Church at 4½ o'clock, P. M., yesterday.

REMARKABLE RAILROAD ESCAPE.—A most narrow escape from a deadly accident is reported to have occurred at Camden one day last week, attributable to the presence of mind of a brakeman. As a large excursion train on the Camden and Atlantic road neared the crossing, the flagman signified that all was right, and the heavily loaded train kept on. When it was near the crossing, a special train on the Amboy road came in sight around the curve, approaching at high speed. The flag-man instantly displayed the red flag, but neither train could stop. Most fortunately, one of the brakemen on the excursion train had the remarkable presence of mind to cut the train and put the brakes down on the cars cut off, which so slowed them that a gap in the train was formed just at the crossing, and the Amboy train dashed through, and no injury was done. But for this the loss of life and mangling of bodies that must have occurred would have been fearful beyond description. There were 2,005 persons on the excursion train.

THE COUNTRY AROUND GETTYSBURG.—An archeological investigation of the country around Gettysburg, conducted by a learned antiquarian, has proved the truth of a belief long entertained by residents that the battle field of Gettysburg had, in the distant past been the scene of a bloody struggle between the Indians or some unknown or long extinct race. This fact is attested by the exhumation of the military implements of the combatants, and the remains of the dead in what is known as the Indian Field, about a mile southwest of Round Top and of the National Cemetery. These relics are found thickly imbedded in the soil over the whole area of territory which was the scene of the battles in 1863. They consist of stone arrow heads, battle axes, war clubs, shields, &c. Some of them have been disinterred from their tomb of centuries and placed on exhibition in the college for the present.

THE Radicals are committing political suicide in every part of the South. The riot in Mobile, in which some incendiary white orators led their poor negro dupes to commit outrages, is an example. Such infamous acts will turn the entire South, negroes and all, against the Radical party.—The Conservatives will have a clean walk over everywhere.—N. Y. Telegram.

THE PIRATICAL CRAFT BREAKING UP.

The Radical "wreckers" in this State are at swords' point with each other. Such of them as failed to get offices from Grant are cursing "like troopers," the more fortunate of the gang who have secured more or less of the public plunder. Dana, who wanted to be, but isn't, Postmaster, is pitching into Grant every day with a zeal that bids fair to work excellent results in the future, if he keeps on. Hastings, of the Commercial, is calling Greeley, of the Tribune, a "corrupt old lobbyist," while the latter retorts by gently intimating that the Commercial man is "an habitual liar." Then again, we have the Times, almost every day denouncing the two Black Republican General Committees of this city as a bad lot, and appealing to them, therefore, in the name of common decency, to disband. It says they are nothing but a gang of office beggars and political baggage-smashers, and therein we concur with the Times. We also concur in the conviction that the best thing they can do, under the circumstances, is to disband.

No good purpose can be subserved by keeping up a mock Radical organization on Manhattan Island any longer. There is no Radical party worth speaking of in this glorious "free city" of ours, and there never can be one. Its people are swayed by impulses and sentiments of too generous and expansive a character to harmonize with the narrow-minded, no-souled instincts which have governed, and still do govern, that wicked organization. If there is any Black Republicanism among us at all, it is a mere squatter, and these squatters now are so insignificant in numbers, and so contemptible as respects positive influence, that we do not wonder there is a demand on the part of the more self-respecting Republicans that they should, in vulgar parlance, "dry up."

Besides these indications of general demoralization, there are other disintegrating influences at work among the "trooly loil," which must work them a plentiful harvest of ruin soon. The sooner the better. The piratical craft has done mischief enough in her day; its black flag continues to fly, it is true, but she is now on the beach, right in among the breakers, and the sooner the hideous old hulk is finally smashed up, and hidden forever out of men's sight, the better.—Metropolitan Record.

HOW THE JAPANESE USE PAPER.

The Japanese use paper for a great variety of purposes. A recent traveler states that he saw it made into material so closely resembling Russian and Morocco leather and pig skin, that it was very difficult to detect the difference. With the aid of peculiar varnish and skill painting, paper made excellent trunks, tobacco bags, cigar cases, saddles, telescope cases, the frame of microscopes; and he even saw and used excellent water proof coats, made of simple paper, which did keep out rain, and were as supple as the best India rubber. The Japanese use neither silk nor cotton hand kerchiefs, towels, nor dusters; paper, in their hands, serves as an excellent substitute. It is soft, thin, tough, of a pale yellowish color, very plentiful, and very cheap.—The inner walls of many a Japanese apartment are formed of paper, being nothing more than painted screens; their windows are covered with a fine, translucent description of the same material. It enters largely into the manufacture of nearly everything in a Japanese household; and we saw what seemed to be balls of twine, but which were nothing but long threads of tough paper rolled up. If a shopkeeper had a parcel to tie up, he would take a strip of paper, roll it quickly between his hands, and use it for the purpose; and it is quite as strong as the ordinary string used at home. In short, without paper, all Japan would come to a dead lock; and, indeed, lest by the arbitrary exercise of his authority, a tyrannical husband should stop his wife's paper, the sage Japanese mothers-in-law invariably stipulate in the marriage settlement that the bride is to have a certain quantity of paper.—Boston Journal of Chemistry.

An emigrant westward passed though Ohio last week on a velocipede.

STATE NEWS.

Spirits Turpentine received in Wilmington last week amounted to 4,565 casks, and rosin received for the same time 10,280 barrels.

Mahone, one of the political leaders of the Eagles party in New Hanover, has been arrested on charge of voting twice at the recent election. Radical like! He was bound in a bond of $500 to answer the charge.

All but two townships in Wayne county elected Conservatives.

NO SARDINES.—Quite a number of sturgeons are being caught here now, which are commanding fair prices. They are "no sardines" in size, some of them resembling a young whale.—R. News.

HON. O. H. DOCKERY.—This gentleman expresses himself as utterly disgusted with Holden and his Quixotic Administration.

Col. Sinclair of Robeson, also expresses perfect disgust at the concern.

Gibe Harris walks into the Governor without gloves. These men claim to have found out his utter worthlessness, long before his recent display of spite against the whole eastern part of the State. Holden is certainly a "gone sucker."—Wadesboro Argus.

A SIGN.—In Newland's Township, Alamance county, at the recent election, John Newland, Conservative beat H. M. Ray, Radical, for Magistrate. Ray, it will be remembered was elected over R. Y. McAden, Esq., to the Convention in 1868, now he is beaten by a Conservative in a township decidedly Radical. "Upon what dirt hath this our Cæsar fed, that he has grown so small."

GOOD IDEA.—The Commissioners of the poor, for Wilson county, gave the inmates of the poor house a barbecue, last week.—This is an example worth following in other counties. Let the poor friendless creatures feel that they are not entirely pushed beyond the pale of humanity when their misfortunes throw them upon public charity.

THE WELDON HOTEL CHANGED HANDS.—Dr. G. W. Blacknall, who has for some eighteen months conducted the Weldon House at this place, has rented his unexpired lease to Capt. J. B. White, of Henderson, N. C., who has taken charge of the establishment. Capt. White is a native of Accomac county, Va., residing at one time near Hampton, but has been for some seven years living in North Carolina. He has had experience in hoteling, and we wish him success in this enterprise.—Roanoke News.

BIG SUM FOR ONE BALE OF COTTON.—The Petersburg Express states that a bale of cotton sold in that market for $202.47, gross, last Thursday. Messrs. Coward & Harris, of this city, says the Norfolk Journal, sold one bale for Dr. L. C. Coke, of North Carolina, for $220.22, gross, when cotton was selling for five cents per pound less than it now is. At present prices 847 pounds (the weight of the bale which they sold,) at 31 cents per pound, would amount to $262.57. Can Petersburg beat that?

WILMINGTON, CHARLOTTE AND RUTHERFORD RAILROAD.—Dr. Wm. Sloan arrived in the city yesterday, and we suppose has entered actively upon his duties as President of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. Under the resolution of the stockholders meeting, introduced by Dr. Sloan, Col. Cowan, and his old Board of Directors have charge of the settlement of the unfinished business of their administration, and will report thereon at the next meeting of the stockholders, to be held in Charlotte next October.

We trust that President Sloan will find the aid given by the State sufficient to put the Road under contract at an early day, and that soon we can visit our Charlotte and Lincolnton friends without going half round the State. Our business is already growing with that section, and with direct connection it must be quite large.—Wil. Journal 11th.

The work goes bravely on in the radical ranks of North Carolina. In response to the threat uttered by the Governor—or his organ—that if the radical paper in this city persists in affording aid to Harris the power of the party, wielded by the Governor, will be used to silence it, the paper aforesaid defies Holden and his supporters, in a recent issue, and announces its intention to kick him from power by some means—the said means not being exactly defined understandingly to the readers of the sheet. One of the means in the power of the Governor to carry out his threat, will be the withdrawal of official 'pap," and thus bring an end to the paper's sickly existence; while on the opposite side the carpet bag element of Craven County will be used to thrust the Governor from office.

"When Greek meets Greek, then comes the tug of war;" but when radical meets radical, then comes the tug for spoils. This is the way we understand the present contest, and advise honest men to "stand from under."—Jour. of Commerce.

HAVE WE GARROTERS AMONG US?—A WOMAN CHOKED AND KNOCKED DOWN IN HER OWN DOOR WAY.—At about 1½ o'clock, Monday morning, a dog belonging to I. E. West, who resides on the corner of East Front and Change street, set up a barking in the house, and Mr. West got up and let him out doors, and the dog immediately drove some person over the fence and down Change Street.

Hardly had Mr. West retired when a female voice was heard crying, murder! Help! Mr. West and his brother, Walter G. West, went to the place from whence the sound came and found Miss Hattie Freeze, (who resides just across the street from Mr. West,) in the street, bare footed and bareheaded, and near her lay a kerosene lamp. Her story is as follows:

Some person came under her window and called her by name. She asked what was wanted. The voice answered: "I am Uncle Charlie" (an old colored man who lives next door,) 'come down with a light." She struck a light and went down, but, before opening the door, inquired again who was there, and received the same answer. On opening the door some one, not Uncle Charlie, struck a hat over the lamp. She darted by him, trying to escape, and he caught her by the throat and tried to choke her to prevent her from calling for help. She, however, cried murder! which called Messrs. West to her assistance, when he knocked her down, and made good his escape before he was detected.—Newbern Times.

Governor Senter's majority in Tennessee will be quite large, as we have always anticipated—probably not less than 60,000—as he had the entire Democratic vote with a full half of the Republican. The verdict in favor of removing all political disabilities and disfranchisements is clear and overwhelming.

As to the new Legislature, we receive the telegraphic reports with allowance and circumspection. Many of them elected on the Senter ticket are simple liberal Republicans, though claimed as "Conservatives." The wish is father to the thought that they will vote to make Andrew Johnson a United States Senator. If they do, they will evince a readiness to repudiate the national debt that does little credit to their integrity, and even less to their patriotism.—N. Y. Tribune.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.
Being situated in the northwestern part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.
The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.
The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.
Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.
FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.
A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC
Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.
Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.
The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

MERCHANT'S INDEPENDENT FIRE COMPANY.—"The members of the Merchant's Independent Fire Company feel that injustice has been done them by the Sentinel," says the Standard of yesterday, because we stated the meeting did not take place on Tuesday night. After quoting our paragraph, the Standard says: "We are requested by the Company to state that the above is untrue." Now, this last sentence, quoted from the Standard, "is untrue." The Company requested him to make no such statement, whatever some individuals of the Company may have done.

The facts are these: By request we published a notice of the meeting, on Tuesday night; about 9 o'clock we went up to the Court Room, and, instead of the Merchants Independent Fire Company, we saw the Colored, No. 1, assembled there. On leaving, a young man below informed us that the Independents could not get the room, and would hold no meeting; that very few had come, anyhow. Then we wrote the paragraph in question, with no view to give offence, but to stir up the members of the Company to attend the meetings, if it is intended to keep up the organization. Some people are so "tuley up-y!"

DISARMENT EXTRAORDINARY.—A correspondent of the Standard, writing from Rockingham county, says, that in a recent trial before Judge Settle, acting as Magistrate, certain members of the Bar were not allowed to appear for the accused parties, because they had not been purged of their "contempt" of the Supreme Court. We shall allude to the matter more at lenght at some future time, in the mean while, we cannot repress an expression of indignation at the outrages our people are called upon to suffer on account of fanatical partisan malice.

EASTERN RALEIGH.—We had a very pleasant ride, by invitation of a friend, through the eastern suburbs of our fast growing city, on yesterday, and proceed to chronicle some of the more noticeable and interesting features of the jaunt.

THE FAIR GROUNDS.

Our friends who are raising large vegetables, fine stock or useful inventions, with a view of exhibiting at the State Fair this fall, may rest assured that the executive committee of the Society will have everything in readiness to receive and accommodate them when they come. The fence is finished entirely around the grounds, as mentioned by us some days since, and a contract for lumber to erect the stalls has been entered into, and their erection will be begun right away.

Floral Hall and other buildings for the accommodation of household articles and the fine arts, will be put in condition forthwith, and such arrangement made for the display of agricultural implements and machinery of all kinds, as to insure each exhibiter a fair chance.

Mr. Alcott, the contractor, is bringing the trotting track to completion, and, when finished, it will be exactly the thing for the purpose designed.

The arrangement for vehicles and pedestrians to approach and enter the grounds by different routes and by different gates is a happy one, for which the Committee deserve great commendation.

Provision for an abundant supply of water has been made by the sinking of two additional wells, which make five within the enclosure. In short, everything seems to have been thought of and provided for, calculated to make the approaching State Fair a pleasing and complete success.

But we must leave allusion to the further incidents of our pleasant ride for to-morrow.

ARRESTED.—Mr. Sargent, who has been giving exhibitions at Tucker Hall this week, was arrested by Sheriff Lee, Wednesday, at the request of the legal authorities of the City of Wilmington, to answer an indictment of the Grand Jury for conducting a lottery in that City. We forbore to mention the matter while Mr. Sargent was still exhibiting, and while it seemed the desire of parties to keep it still, but these reasons are now removed, and we give it as an item of local gossip.

LIFE INSURANCE INFORMATION, AS SEEN IN THE NEW YORK UNDERWRITER, PAGE 186, JUNE NUMBER, 1869.—Among the new Companies admitted into this State during the last year was the "National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America," a Company chartered by Congress for the District of Columbia, precisely the same as they would charter a local Fire Insurance Company, or a Benevolent Society; therefore the Institution is not a National one, in the light of a National Bank, for Congress h sanot consented to nationalize the business of Life Insurance.

Some delay occurred in admitting this Company, owing to its capital, which, instead of being all paid in, as represented, was mostly composed of stock notes, with stocks, bonds and a mortgage, as collaterals, much of which was supposed to be held by certificates not transferred.

The objection did not consist in the fact that the capital was not all paid up, but in the unwillingness of the Department to certify to the people of the State that the Company possessed a paid up capital of $1,000,000, when the amount paid up was only about $200,000.

Their statement now appears in proper form, and shows an extravagant and rapid beginning. Inexperienced managers often fall into great errors, but in this case, such as may be incorporated in their plain, promises and machinery, are likely to be discovered and corrected before their large capital is seriously encroached upon.

TEN MONTHS' WORK.—To obtain from Congress a charter enabling an association of financiers to transact business in every State of the Union; to organize a company under such a charter; to open a main office and install a staff of officers therein; to select leading financiers and business men as general agents for transacting the business of the Company in the several sections of the country; to have these general agents so carefully examine their respective districts as to select the most efficient and respected men as county agents; to have these county agents, in turn, make judicious selection of local agents in cities, towns and villages; to prepare the multiplicity of blanks, forms, orders, instructions, pamphlets and other documents with which to supply all these agencies; to inform the public, through the medium of the newspaper press, of the existence of such an organization, the financial basis upon which it rests, and the ground-work of its claims to public approval and support;—these things would seem to be sufficient to occupy the first twelve months of such an organization, leaving to subsequent years the accomplishment of actual results. But we find a notable exception to such a course in the case of the National Life Insurance Company of America, chartered by Congress in July, 1868, and consequently not yet one year old. It has had all of the above mentioned work to do, and it is but rational that, in doing this, it should have met with the opposition of old established insurance companies. But the new Company has done far more. Indeed, its successful record, for the first ten months of its operation, has been most remarkable, and utterly unprecedented. It has already issued no less than 5,895 policies, representing insurance to the amount of over fifteen millions, an amount exceeding by nearly $5,000,000 that insured by any Company prior to 1863, in any full year of its existence, and nearly double that ever insured by any other company in the world, during its entire first year. After such an authenticated statement, there can be no doubt what the investing public thinks of the National Life.

Some of the especial advantages offered by this Company are set forth in the advertisement of P. F. Pescud the General Agent for North Carolina, in another column, and its operations will be explained, in further detail, at the office of this agency. We believe the National Life to be well secured—the paid-up capital of one million dollars is a good base to start from—and that it will be honestly as well as successfully carried on.

See advertisement of P. F. Pescud, the successful and very popular General Agent, for N. C., in another column.

SUN-PRINTING ON FRUIT.—Monograms, initial letters, or other designs, can be printed on such fruit as apples, pears, or peaches by the action of the sun, with very pretty effect, of either a light or dark color. To do this, draw the monogram, letter, or design on a piece of writing paper, and paste it with mucilage or glue upon the side of the fruit exposed to the sun. Just before the fruit begins to color, and when the fruit is ripe, and the paper is removed, the design will appear in a lighter or different color to the rest of the fruit; as, for instance, if the experiment is tried on a yellow fleshed peach with a red cheek, the design will appear in gold, surrounded with red. If the opposite effect is desired take a small oval or circular piece of paper, and cut out or pierce the letter or design in it, and paste it on the fruit, which, when ripe, will have the design in high color on a yellow or light green ground, of the shape of the piece of paper, and this again will be surrounded by the brighter color of the fruit.

The argument on the petition of Yerger for a writ of habeas corpus to take him out of the hands of the military commission, at Jackson, Miss., where he is on trial for the murder of Colonel Crane, of the United States Army, was made before Chief Justice Chase, in the Supreme Court chamber, at Washington, yesterday. The counsel for Yerger denied the jurisdiction of the military commission and demanded a trial by jury. Attorney General Hoar, in his reply, denied the right of Chief Justice Chase to hear the argument, except at a sitting of the Supreme Court, and contended that the petition must go before the United States Court in Mississippi. The argument lasted four hours, and at the conclusion the Chief Justice said that he would notify counsel when he would be ready to render his decision.

Everywhere in Kentucky the Radicals have lost ground instead of having gained it as they expected. We have beat them on their own dunghill, carrying the mountain counties wherever there was a contest. We gain so far a Senator and three Representatives, from districts which were thought to be hopelessly Radical. The mountain boys couldn't stand negro suffrage. That's what's the matter.—Courier Journal.

GENERAL NEWS.

Hon. C. M. Hamilton, sole representative in the House from Florida, is in Washington for the purpose of urging the Secretary of the Navy to decapitate all employees in the Pensacola navy yard who do not entertain the views held by the "straight outs" (radicals) in Florida. There are several hundred employed in and about the yard.

The highest price ever known to have been given for a book was at an auction sale in London June, 1811, when a copy (considered to be the only one extant) of Valdarfer's first edition (a mark 1471) of Boccaccio's Decamerone was sold to the Marquis Blandford for two thousand two hundred and sixty pounds.

It is understood that, in the event of the Empress Eugenie's making a tour to this country, the Navy Department will be advised by the commanding officer of the United States squadron in Europe in time to make preparations for her reception.—The French fleet to convey the Empress across the Atlantic will, in that event, probably be escorted by Rear Admiral Radford in his flag ship, the Franklin.

COMMENDABLE.—The great body—or rather the better portion—of the colored people of Charleston, S.C., have set their race in the South a good example by meeting and publicly repudiating and condemning the conduct of certain lawless persons of their race who made criminals of themselves and brought disgrace upon their city by riotous proceedings on the recent visit of the Savannah Base Ball Club.

At the White Sulpher Spring, Greenbrier county, Va., the eclipse caused the thermometer suddenly to fall with great rapidity, and the weather turned so cold that frost was visible the next morning.

A colored girl, about fifteen years old, living with Barlett Weaver, near Bowersville, in Hart county, Ga., about two weeks ago, gave birth to five children within the space of three days. All the children were still born, and it was thought that the girl would die.

The sugar cane crop of Southwestern Georgia is said to be better now than since the war.

The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph says: "Those were regular Congressional niggers at the Court House, in Baldwin county, Alabama, where they took possession of the polls, beat the whites, drove every Democratic nigger away, and polled 220 majority for Buckley. They knew exactly what Congress expected of them, and what was understood by re nstruction according to the Radical method."

It is reported that Senator Sawyer and Congressman Bowen, of South Carolina, stand pledged to their constituents to get an appropriation from Congress of $1,000,000 to complete the Customhouse at Charleston, and that Alderman Potter is to have the contract to do the work, on condition that none but out-and-out Radicals shall be employed.

Macon, Ga., may claim to be the city of Mocking Birds. They abound in every street, lane and alley in the town.

A negro man in Atlanta, Georgia, has been fined fifty dollars, or six months' service in the chain gang, for marrying a white woman.

Among the bequests of the late Philip Maret of New Haven, is one amounting to one fifth of his property, being about $146,000, to the Connecticut State Hospital, the income of which is to be applied in providing free beds for the indigent patients, giving preference to those incurably affected, if such are admissible.

Two Irishmen, stopping at the Island House, Toledo, last week, lit their gas and, with windows open, sat down to enjoy a chat. The hungriest of Toledo mosquitoes soon flocked in and drove them desperate. The clerk, who was summoned to devise some defence against them, told them to close the windows and put out the gas. They acted on the suggestion and placed themselves between the sheets. Just as they began to doze a lightning bug, which had strayed into the room, caught the eye of one of the travelers. He roused his companion with a punch: "Jamie, Jamie, it's no use! Here's one of the craturs aarchin' for us wid a lantern!"

WHAT IT COSTS.—It is estimated that there are one hundred thousand men in New York who receive wages for either manual or mental labor. If they take each one drink a day at ten cents each, the total expenditure is $10,000, and for cigars and tobacco say ten cents each, $10,000, making $20,000 a day, $140,000 a week, $560 000 a month, and $6 720,000 a year for drinking and smoking and chewing, all of which is probably not indispensable.

Mr. Jefferson Davis is now making a tour through Scotland accompanied by Dr Charles Mackay.

Mr. Tate, the Democratic candidate for for Treasurer of Kentucky, will have, a light vote, about 60,000 majority. Seymore's majority in the State, last fall, was 66 323.

Sprague and Anthony have smoaked the pipe of peace. Rhode Island wasn't large enough to permit of their quarreling.

Four hundred troops from San Jago De Cuba, were captured by Gen Jordan. A force sent by Valmaseda to relieve them, were defeated with a loss of half their number. It is reported that the Spaniards have driven from Ximo Village District with heavy loss, and that the Cubans are now in possession of the entire District. Gen Jordan has accomplished his purposes every where. His troops are much inspirited by their successes and are still in excellent spirits.

A cargo of slaves, recently landed in Cinco Villas, were captured and liberated.

Quesada's forces are closing on their opponents, who have no troops outside of Nuevitas, except those confined in Puerto Principe.

Special Notices.

"Fresh as a Maiden's Blush" Is the pure peachy Complexion which follows the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It is the True Secret of Beauty. Fashionable Ladies in Society understand this.

The Magnolia Balm changes the rustic Country Girl into a City Belle more rapidly than any other one thing.

Redness, Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Blotches and all effects of the Summer Sun disappear where it is used, and a genial, cultivated, fresh expression is obtained which rivals the Bloom of Youth. Beauty is possible to all who will invest 75 cents at any respectable store and insist on getting the Magnolia Balm.

Use nothing but Lyon's Kathairon to Dress the Hair. July 24-dawim

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but effective purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to restore the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer should what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and the young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

THE ANGEL'S BIDDING.

Not a sound is heard in the Convent;
The Vesper Chant is over,
The sick have all been tended,
The poor man's toils are ended
Till the matin bell has rung.
All is still, save the clock, that is ticking
So loud in the frosty air,
And the soft snow, falling as gently
As an answer to a prayer.
But an angel whispers, "O sisters,
You must rise from your bed to pray,
In the silent, deserted chapel,
You must kneel till the dawn of day,
For, far on the desolate moorland,
So dreary, and bleak, and white,
There is one all alone and helpless,
In peril of death to-night.

No sound on the moorland to guide him,
No star in the murky air;
And he thinks of his home and his loved ones
With the tenderness of despair;
He has wandered for hours on the snow-drift,
And he tries to stand in vain,
And so lies down to dream of his children,
And never to rise again.
Then kneel in the silent chapel
Till the dawn of to-morrow's sun,
And ask of the Lord you worship
For the life of that desolate one;
And the smiling eyes of his children
Will gladden his heart again,
And the grateful tears of God's poor ones
Will fall on your soul like rain!

Yet leave him alone to perish,
And the grace of your God implore,
With all the strength of your spirit,
For one who needs it more.
Far away in the gleaming city,
Amid perfume, and song, and light,
A soul that Jesus has ransomed
Is in peril of sin to-night
The tempter is close beside him,
And his danger is all forgot,
And the far off voices of childhood
Call aloud, but he hears not;
He thinks not of her to-day.
And he will not look up to Heaven,
And his angel is turning away.

Then pray for a soul in peril,
A soul for which Jesus died;
Ask by the cross that bore Him,
And by her who stood beside,
And the angels of God will thank you
And bend from their thrones of light,
To tell you that Heaven rejoices
In the deed you have done to-night.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a home-stead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents loads already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh.
